CERTIFICATES OF OCCUPANCY AND COMPLIANCE (§§ 1010--1019)

[1010. Generally.]

- A. No existing building and no building erected or structurally altered, shall be occupied, used or changed in use until a certificate of occupancy and compliance shall have been issued by the building official, stating that the building and proposed use ~~DS704.011013~~ or land complies with all provisions of this code and all other applicable building and health laws and ordinances and with the provisions of this code and all other ordinances relating to electrical and plumbing installation and with the provisions of this chapter. Certificates of occupancy and compliance shall be applied for coinciding with the application for a building permit and shall be issued within five (5) days after the erection or structural alteration of such building shall have been completed in conformity with the provisions of this chapter and the other laws and ordinances referred to in this section. A record of all certificates shall be kept on file in the office of the building official and copies shall be furnished on request to persons having a proprietary or tenancy interest in the building affected. No fee shall be charged for an original certificate, but for copies of an original certificate there shall be a charge of fifty cents ($0.50) each.
- B. The use of a building erected prior to adoption of this ordinance shall not be changed from one class to another, unless and until a certificate of occupancy and compliance with the provisions of this chapter has been obtained from the building official.
- C. Before the issuance of a certificate of occupancy and permit to engage in the sale of beer or wine in connection with a restaurant or cafe by the building official, to whom the applicant has been certified as having complied with all ordinances of the city applicable to the sale of beer and wine, the applicant shall file with the city health officer showing compliance with all sanitary and health laws, ordinances and regulations of the state and the city.
